

Reclaiming the Legacy of
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

89th Birthday
Commemoration

SATURDAY
January 13, 2018
12 noon – 1:30 pm

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library
Fourth Street Lobby
150 East San Fernando Street, San José

Reclaiming the Legacy of
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

89th Birthday Commemoration

- Multi-cultural drumming
- Dr. Clayborne Carson, Director of the Martin Luther King, Jr., Research and Education Institute
 - Prof. Scott Meyers-Lipton
- Members of the Community will read excerpts from several of Dr. King's most momentous speeches.
 - Reflections on Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the MLK of India
 - Dance of Peace

Saturday, January 13, 2018 at 12 noon -
1:30 pm

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library

Fourth Street Lobby
150 East San Fernando Street
San José, CA 95112

Bus routes: 22, 522, 23, 11, 63, 64, 72, 73, 81, Hwy 17 Express, MST 55, LRT, Dash
Parking available in the Fourth Street Garage across the street

Free and open to the public
Wheelchair accessible

Info: <http://sanjosepeace.org> | <https://events.sjpl.org> | 408-297-2299

Sponsored by the Dr. Martin Luther King Legacy Committee, San José / Silicon Valley NAACP, SJSU African American Studies Department, San José Peace and Justice Center, Ambedkar King Study Circle, Our Developing World, Human Agenda, Billy DeFrank LGBTQ Community Center, Justice for Palestinians, Leonard Peltier Support Group of Silicon Valley, and Center for Convivial Research and Autonomy