

The idea of many becoming one represents the foundation of what it is to be American: to welcome and embrace people of diverse backgrounds. And yet the President of the United States of America has repeatedly refused to condemn the neo-Nazis, Klansmen, and white nationalists who march with racist taunts. It is unimaginable.

- It's time to speak out! In the coming weeks, NAACP leaders will be meeting with national, state, and local elected officials in cities and towns across the country. Help us drive out hate: share your thoughts on the issues that matter to you.
- It is clear that President Trump lacks the moral clarity to lead this fight. We deserve leaders that possess the integrity to guide us towards unity. Tell Congress to take the lead by putting the American people ahead of political party. Contact your legislator now!
- The appalling events this weekend in Charlottesville reaffirm the need to take back our democracy. Sign our petition for democracy.
- Hate has no place in the White House. The presence of known white supremacists serve only to empower and embolden the forces that aim to divide us. Join us in calling on President Trump to remove racists and bigots from the White House and administration.

In solidarity,
